

The background of the cover features an outdoor dining table set for a party. The table is covered with a light green tablecloth and is surrounded by bamboo chairs with teal and green patterned cushions. In the center of the table is a large teal vase filled with pink and white flowers. There are white plates with food, glasses of water, and silverware on the table. In the background, several colorful umbrellas in shades of pink, teal, and light blue are hanging from above. The overall scene is bright and festive.
